

Suicide Management & Interventions

Working with the Vulnerable

Friday 27th September 2024

This face-to-face training has been developed for counsellors, therapist and professionals who work with clients & pupils who present as vulnerable with risk of suicide.

The training will enable professionals to feel confident in providing safe support for adults & young people in crisis with the aim of preventing further escalation through the use of careful management and effective therapeutic interventions. The training will be informative, therapeutic and interactive!

We will aim to cover and / or discuss the following:

- ❖ Assessing & Managing Risk
- ❖ Supporting & Emotional Holding
- ❖ Risk Profiling
- ❖ Practical Interventions
- ❖ Staying in the Moment
- ❖ Reflective Practise
- ❖ Professional Self-care

Training facilitators: Martin Chester & David Archard are both qualified and experienced counsellors and members of BACP. They aim to provide a positive supportive learning environment whilst honouring the participants individual learning styles.
